NEW YORK, SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1892.

PRICE ONE CENT.

WORLD TO-MORROW.

PRICE ONE CENT.

"LAMOLIE'S" PRIZE.

Winning Letter in the Contest "Should Wives Receive Salaries."

The Award Was Made by Judge Chauncey M. Depew.

Sketch of the Fair Writer, Mrs. A. D. Balley, of Bladensburg, Md.

Dr. Chauncey M. Depew has forwarded to the editor of THE EVENING WORLD his decision as judge in the contest by readers of this paper on the question, " Should Wives Re-

But if he has only a salary, then I advise that together they lay so much away, after all expenses are paid, the bills being sent to Eleven of His Eilis Island Men Have open to the little woman who does so much

"True marriage (and it has been proven any other is a failure) seldom brings up the ques-tion of money. If both know the state of finances and the income they will work

" A salary for what? Tenderness, loving oce, loyalty in every action and word, devoting one's life to one man. Can any

"Lamolie" is the daughter of a distinguished army officer and first saw the light in garrison. Her girlhood years were spent at different posts on the frontier, where her father's command was stationed, and as matter of course her early education and training devolved upon her mother. She beshe describes her life on the plains as hav-"Sunny Maryland" she declares to be quiet, but her letter breathes a spirit of content and perfect wedded happiness. "It takes great tact to talk of of one's self," she writes, and she gracefully declines to make the attempt.

"Like the bursting of a bomb in our quiet home," she says, " came the letter from the editor informing me that I had won the prize. ditor informing me that I have selected in the family archives and labelled as a remarkable incident in a happy life."

One Out a Watch, the Other in a

Jail.
John McGettrick. of 75 Monroe street was for 24,500. held in the Tombs Court this more charged with having stolen a gold watch and shain from Emil Martin, of 86 Fourth avenue.

Wire News in Brief. Ed Seal shot and killed at Poplar Bluff, Mo., by haries, son of Judge John G. Wear, in a quarrel. Frank Shaw, of St. Paul, has paid $100,000 for he Spring-meeting privileges at the St. Louis Fair

Amelia Frass's Refusal to Marry Anastay, Murderer of Baroness Him Caused a Tragedy.

After Wounding Her, Butcher Albert Habedank Killed Himself.

Amelia Frass, a pretty, blue-eyed, flaxer haired German girl of twenty, is making an almost hopeless fight for life in Believue The Blade Does Its Work Quickly Hospital. She is suffering from the effects of a pistol-shot wound inflicted by the lover she Before à Bloodthirs; y Paris Crowd. refused to marry, and who, after wounding her, killed himself.

Dr. Titterington said this morning that oners' office to send some one to take her morning. ante-mortem statement.

the girl, is lying at the Morgue.

for the family of Edward A. Caswell, the favorite with the family.

dank at the house of a mutual friend. Their condemned. families had been acquainted in the fatherand and Amelia treated him kindly on that displaying any great amount of nervousness, account, but he had a deceitful, sullen look. In fact, his bearing was firm. He was very love at first sight. Amelia had many admir-but his laughter was caused by nervousness ers and he determined to capture her at once and not by any lack of appreciation of his

MRIL A. D. SALEY.

A very large number of letters on this topic was received by the editor, many of which were printed. When the contest was closed to ward the letters were submitted to Dr. Depen, who had consented to review them and award the letters were printed to review them and award to get many of the printed to review them and award to get many of the proposed of the letters on the stopic was received by the editor, many of which were printed. When the contest was closed the letters were submitted to Dr. Depen, who had consented to review them and award the letters were submitted to Dr. Depen, who had consented to review them and award to get many of the problem of the letters until the present them. Provided the letters on the state of the letters on the state of the contest was consented to review them and award to get many of the last time to the editor.

The proving is his letter to the editor:

"The last was a manufact of the letters on the state state of the contest was consented to review them and award to get many of the last time to the editor.

"I have carefully read the letters on the special provided to ward the prize to the letter signed 'Lamolto, Bladensburg, Mc."

"Bo many of the episties are equally worthy of recognition that it is very difficult to decide which is the best; but I have concluded to award the prize to the letter signed 'Lamolto, Bladensburg, Mc."

The winning letter is here reproduced:

No Salary Is Adequate.

"To the Editor."

The was an and afford to piace in the bank a good round sum to his wire's credit on his wedding day, let him do it; there is nothing so humiliating to her as to ask her husband for car fare.

"But it he bas only a salary, then I advese."

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

But it he bas only a salary, then I advese.

B

MAJOR HIBBARD MAY RESIGN.

Been Bemoyad.

The people of Ellis Islan i are in a state o tigation at Washington. Heads are already beginning to tall and nobody feels safe.

Assembly Republican Club, and ten other men in the construction department under Major Hibbard, have been discharged, and it is said at Ellis Island that Major Hibbard will salary pay for it? Ah, no; let the bank book be open for her, but pay your wifs by achieving your ambitton's goal, in being worthy of her, in loving her with your atrength, and steering the bark, which is your home, safely down the swift, restless tide of life.

"Lamolie," the gitted woman who wrote the winning letter, is the wife of Mr. A. D. Balley, of El Hacienda, an estats four miles from Hadensburg, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Her portrait appears in this column. She is only twenty-six years of age, and has been married a little less than five years.

"Lamolie" is the daughter of a distingual of the land in his resignation.

Suogeon-General Wyman, of the Marine Hospital service, went to the Island this morning to make preparations for the Marine Hospital service, went to the Island this morning to make preparations for the Marine Hospital service, went to the Island this morning to make preparations for the Marine Hospital service, went to the Island this morning to make preparations for the Marine Hospital service, to take charge of the medial department, as Dr. Tonner has landed in his resignation.

The Congressional Committee is coming on from Washington next week to investigate a certain contract which is said to be peculiar. The contract was for crib work and dredging from Hadensburg, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Her portrait appears in this column. She is only twenty-six years of age, and has been married a little less than five years.

"Lamolie," is the daughter of a distingual thanks to see that the building did not catch its said to be peculiar. The contract which is said to be peculiar. The contract was for crib work and dredging around the lained, and was given to a contract which is said to be peculiar. The contract was for or bowk to investigate a certain contract which is said to be peculiar. The contract was for or bowk to investigate a certain contract which is said to be peculiar. The contract was for or bowk to investigate a certain contract which is said to be peculiar. Th

TO INVESTIGATE SUPT. OWEN.

An Officer Detailed from the Attorney-General's Department.

WASSINGTON, April 9.—Attorney-General came a student at Wesleyan College, from Miller has interucted Assistant-Attorney W. which she graduated with honors at nineteen.

J. Rannells, of the Department of Justice to ing been full of excitement and productive of the purpose of investigating the charges of preferred against Mr. Owen, Superintendent

The detail was made in response to a request from the Secretary of the Treasury, who went outside of his own Department in order to procure the services of a person thoroughly impartial and unprejudiced. The investigation was demanded by Supt. Owen.

The Velkyrie Sold to a Duke. The tamous yacht Valkyrie, which was built in 1889 to come over here and sail for

o-day

Is the best day to find a house in The World's REAL-ESTATE INDEX.

Dellard, Executed To-Day.

Pale and Nervous, Yet He Laughs at Sight of the Knife.

although the wound was very dangerous her condition was unchanged and that she had a licutenant who murdered his benefact ress. PARIS, April 8.—Louis Anastay, the ex-subchance of recovery. In order to be on the the Baroness Dellard on Dec. 4 last, was exesafe side, however, he had notified the Cor- cuted in the Place de la Roquette at 5.10 this

In accordance with the French custom the The body of Albert Habedank, the young condemued man had no knowledge that he sutcher of Union Hill, N. J., who sent a bullet was to meet his death this morning until the into his own brain after he had tried to kill | prison officials entered his cell and told him to prepare for execution. The guillotine was Amelia came from Germany three years erected in the usual place directly in front of ago. A friend, Marie Piller, who was a coak the jail.

Knowledge of the tragedy that would be John street metal merchant, at 108 East enacted there this morning had reached the Fortieth street, secured her a position as general public through the erection of the chambermaid there, and she became a guillotine, and the usual crowd of sightseers, composed mostly of the lowest dregs of the about three months ago Amelia met Habe-Anastay walked to the guillotine without Amelia used to tell Marie, the cook, that she pale, however, and it was apparent that he High tilke.

With Habedank, however, it was a case of He laughed as he reached the gu illotine for himself. He proposed marriage. She awful position.

ried to put him off, and he threatened to Arrived at the place of death the prelimat the Navy Department this morning that Saloonkeeper Bjorkman Suspected But Mrs. Bradley Martin's Cousin's Mrs. Annie Cervo Arrested for One Prisoner Was Cut Down Pive Lieut. J. H. Hetherington, C. S. N., has been to Be "James L. White." Friends Have Just Learned of It.

ess as to the result of the inves- lish colony, on the ground that the latter had J. Moran, a colored member of the Eleventh her husband being attached to the Asiatio cards. They gained entrance to the building by forcing open a window.

Five little burgiars, ranging in age from nine to fifteen years, stood in a row in front of Justice Meads in the Harlem Police Court this morning. They were arrested yesterday evening by Policeman Woodbridge, of the evening by Policeman Woodbridge, of the East Eighty-eighth street police station, for breaking into the office of Contractor William Murray, son of the Police Superintendent, at Sinety-inth street and Third avenue, and stealing a clock and a quantity of postal cards. They gained entrance to the building by forcing open a window.

The prisoners tearfully described themselves as Charles Ebbitt, him years old, of 1773 Third avenue; Wm. Seibert, ten years old, of 1791 Third avenue; John Taugart, eleven years old, of 1795 Third avenue; James Mulcahy, fitteen years old, of 167 East Ninety-ninth street, and Thomas Carey, fourteen years old, of 169 East Ninety-ninth street. They admitted their guilt, and were committed to the care of the Children's Society. colety.

It was said by Policeman Woodbridge that Ebbitt, the youngest of the lot, was the leader of the gang.

CAVALRY PATROL RIO STREETS. Brazilian Political Situation Again

Declared Critical [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] LONDON, April 9 .- A special despatch to the times from Buenos Ayres says: The political situation in Rio Janeiro is were patrolled last night by cavalry in addi-Russia's Minister of Finance Sud denly and Seriously Ill.

ST. PHTERSBURG, April 9.-M. Visnegradsky, Minister of Finance, was attacked by a in the bookkeeper's office of the Finance Desudden illness last night. He fainted and has partment, at a salary of $1,000 a year. dden illness last night. He fainted and has not yet recovered consciousness. His condi-

Young & Smylle's"Acme"Licerice Pellete e instant relief to sore throat. Druggists. "." A Full Page of REAL ESTATE NEWS in the Sunday World To Morrow.

BLACK AND WHITE.

The hydra-headed Coal Trust goes The Boomars, Moses-like, now stand Debarred from out the Promised Land.

WAS HE CREAMER'S ACCOMPLICE?

It is now believed that the accomplice of Reunion of Second Brigade Survivors in Jersey City.

The war veterans of the Second New Jersey Brigade are holding a reunion in Jersey City to-day. About two hundred old soldiers are The veterans met in Van Bouten Post

Headquarters, in the City Hall, at 11 o'clock, and, escorted by the Fourth Regiment, under Col. P. F. Wanser, and a platoon of police under Capt. Kelly, of the second *recinct, marched to Taylor's Hotel and thence through some of the principal streets to Wood's Hall, in Barrow street, where a banquet will be held this alternoon. Gen. Joseph B. Carr, of Troy, and Gen Sewell were expected.

From Europe to Jail. NYACE, April 9 .- William B. Denman, of Garnerville, Rockland County, is locked up in the County Jall to-day, charged with forgery. He forged a check last Fall on a well-known citizen of Haverstraw, got it cashed and ran away. He has been to Europe, but came back this week and was arrested. $4,000 Pire in Newark.

NEWARE, N. J., April 8 .- An electric light wire ignited the woodwork in the se period critical. The streets of the city attrolled last night by cavairy in additional and police.

Street critical as treet, Newark, N. J., a little after midnight this morning, causing a $4,000 fire. The building was occupied by two families, and Towey & Co. had a store underneath.

> Appointed by the Comptroller. Comptroller Myers to-day appointed Albion Beekman, of 2016 Seventh avenue, & clerk "Then Wink the Other Eye."

One of the most popular and humorous and melodious of the songs of sto-day. Words and music will appear in to-morrow's Hercury, together with Fielding's great story, "Tom Jones," condensed to an hour's reading. .. PAXL PAXL PAXI, PAXI,

NOT A SECRET WEDDING.

Louder than the Cannon's roar

The hero who was duel, bred

The marriage of Charles W. Wibirt, a

Has now turned tail and homeward fled,

Hear Funs on now his wrath outpour.

Total of $32,647 from the City. Edward Faulkner, who was suspended from his position as a keeper of the City Prison in 1873 and was never reinstated, has brought suit against the city for $18,000, which he claims for arrears of salary.

Michael Sullivan, formerly a watchman in the Dock Department, has brought a similar suit against the city for $14,647. He claims salary from 1875.

BOY LOST.

Truent Samuel Lewis Supposed to Have Bun Away from Home. Samuel Lewis, eleven years old, has been lissing from his home, 121 Ludlow street, since last Wednesday.
He left home to go to school and hasn't beer It is supposed that he ran away, because he Great Business Opportunity. To lease for term of years, four-story build ing at corner of Park Row and Ann street, opposite Astor House. Address F. D. est all tobacco cigarettes, 10 ets. per package. .. | room 8, Pulitzer Building. ...

LOMBARDO'S SLAYER AGAIN.

The man who's known by Grandpa's hat

Has down upon the Mongel ant.

Is worse than bi-chloride of gold.

The weather, blowing het and cold,

The crase for thiering grows apace,

The street-car driver now looms up

An Oscar Wi'de from tip to top.

And trusted elerks oft fall from graon.

BOTH TRIED TO DIE IN JAIL.

Bernard Hollowitz, seventeen years old

His symptoms were suspiciously like those of typhus, and yesterday the hospital doctors called the attention of the Health Board to the case. Inspector Doty examined Hol-lowitz, pronounced his allment typhus and an order was at once issued for the sick man's inspectors have been sent to fumigate the house from which Hollowitz was taken.

Van E.'s Winning at Gloucester

Races Cost Them $32,000.

CINCINNATI, April 9 .- Sporting men here

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ter yesterday the Covington bookmakers were Ashbrook, a Covington plunger, sent the tip

o-morrow

it will not be wicked to

REAL-ESTATE INDEX.

and made thereby $10,000 for himself

read the corner of Broome and Norfolk streets.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 8.—Mrs. Annie Precinct Police Station in Jersey City made Oxford was then a quarter of a length in Cervo, the Italian woman who stabled to several attempts each last night to commit front. Both crews were pulling at the rate death Frank Lombardo, a gardener, in this death Frank Lombardo, a gardener, in this city five months ago, as she alleged, in defectly five months ago, as she alleged, in defense of her honor, and was acquitted after an exciting trial in the Union County Court, street, both of whom were arrested for disor.

Of thirty-six strokes to the minute. Cambridge was pulling steadily, but the strokes avenue, and Philip Reilly, residing on Seventh did not seem to have the power of those of Caterd's boat, and the boat dropped allowly sequited of the charge of killing Gomes and Rogishman, at Yokohama about two months age.

A cablegram from Commander John II.
Bartlett, commanding the Marion, gave briefly the information that Hetherington had been acquitted by the Consular Court at Tokohama, before which he was tried. This has puradiction in such a matter.

Tokohama before which he was tried. This he principle of the such that the consular court hat the from the tribunal than the Consular Court at Tokohama, before which he was tried. This has puradiction in such a matter.

Betterington if will be remembered, it believes the consular court hat he principle will be the consular court hat the from the tribunal than the navy who alone at little at England the consular court hat the from the tribunal than the navy who alone at little at England the consular court hat the from the

ATTACKED HER WITH AN AWL

Spuzart Says His Stepmother Wa Teaching His Sister to Steal. Michael Spuzart, of 60 Spring street, was arraigned this morning at the Tombs Court on a charge of having assaulted his step-mother, Dominica Sazana, with a shoemaker's awl.

Spuzart pleaded self-defense. He said that Donaintes had been teaching his twelve-year old sister Nina how to steat, and when he re-monstrated the old woman attacked him viriously, and that he kept her at bay with the awi. Judge McKahon discharged Spuzart and told him to move with Nina from his step-mother, with whom they have been living.

READY TO HANG HARRIOTT.

Mrs. Leonard's Murderer to Be Exe cuted Next Wednesday. PRESENCED, N. J., April 9.—Sheriff Smock, of Monmouth County, is making preparations to execute in the jail here next Wednesday Louis Harriott, who murdered Mrs. Charles Leonord at her home near Atlantic Highlands last September.

atholic priests are in daily attendance, preparing Harriott for death, but he seems uterly indifferent to his fate. It is understood that Van Hise, of Newark, will act as hangman.

SMALL-POX ON BAYARD STREET. Second Member of One Family Taker

to Hospital To-Day. Samuel Cohen, thirty years old, of 13 Bayard street, was removed to the North Brother Island Hospital, sick with small-pox

One of his children was taken to the hospi-Weather Forecast.

Till 8 A. M. Sunday: Fair; much colder brisk northwest winds; killing frost to-night. Por Runday: Colder; fair. For Konday: Fair; slightly warmer.

IT'S OXFORD'S RACE.

In the Best Time Yet Made from Putney to Mortlake.

Cambridge Far Behind in the English 'Varsity Race.

Splendid Day for the Event and Vact Crowds Looking On.

LONDON, April 8.—For the twenty-sixth time since the inauguration of the Oxford-Cambridge boat races the dark blue of Ox-ford was to-day carried to victory by the strong arms of its wearers, and thundering cheers greeted the oarsmen as they rested on their cars after their well-fought battle for Altogether forty-nine races have been rowed, one of which, that of 1877, terminated in a deed heat.

To-day was an ideal one for the carsmen.

The Summer weather that has prevailed for the past week continued and the banks of the Thames were packed with enormous crowds of people. The gathering of to-day has never been equalled in previous years, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed among the supporters of the two clubs. The wind, what little there was of it, was racing were perfect. The tide was on the At noon the time fixed for the race, the carsmen appeared, and this was the signal for thundering cheers that swept up and from the southwest. The water was perfectly smooth, and all in all the conditions for down the river again and again. Oxford won the toss and chose the Middlesex side of the river, where, if there was any advantage to be derived from the flood tide, they would get it.

The crews took their position at the starting line just above the aqueduct adjoining Putney Bridge, and at exactly 12.15 the starting signal was given. Oxford took the water first and jumped to the front. Cambridge was quick to follow, and then the struggle began. With the per-fect rhythm of a machine the oars flashed in and out of the water, but strain and struggle as they would Cambridge could not close the When Hammersmith Bridge, one mile and six furlongs from the start, was reached, Oxford was still in front. There was hardly any change in the relative positions of the boats when the Lead Mills, one mile and Two male prisoners confined in the Second seven furlongs from the start, were pas was arrested at her home here last night and taken to Newark on a warrant in which she is charged with swearing to assassinate William Daniels, a barber in that city.

She had leaned Daniels $50$ before the Reilly was on the verge of delirium when little distance further on, were reached they

At Barnes Bridge, about three miles and five furlongs from the start, they were two and a quarter lengths in the lead. The winner's time was 10 minutes, 31 apr

Oxford's time to-day is the best in the record of the great 'varsity races.

The nearest approach to to-day's figures was in 1873, when Cambridge won in 18.33.

The distance over the l'utney-to-Mortiake course is four miles and a quarter, lacking forty yards.

FEARS FOR 200 PASSENGERS.

Steamer Alexander Walkow Long Bernard Hollowitz Developed the Overdue and Perhaps Lost. Disease in Gouverneur Hospital.

INT ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, April S.—The steamer from Persia, laden with cotton and with 200 passengers on board, before reported overdue at Baku, a was removed from Gouverneur Hospital to North Brother Island to-day suffering from typhus fever. Hollowitz was taken to the hospital several days ago from a house at the Alexander Walkow. Fears are entertained that she has foundered and that all on board have been lost. AGAINST THE HARLEM ROAD. Judge Coxe Decides in Favor of the

Acoumulator Company. Judge Coxe, in the United States Circuit

Court, filed a decision this morning in the case of the Accumulator Company against COVINGTON BOOKIES SWAMPED. | the New York and Harlem Railr The Judge holds that the right to use the Swan periorated coils used in the storage batteries with which the electric cars are run over the city route of the Harlem Road, belongs exclusively to the Accumulator Company as the successor of Swan. The decision also declares that the Swan electrode is the electrode of commerce to-day.

plucked was a bottled horse, and that Arthur NO MEETING ON THE COAL DEAL to Cincinnati friends, furnished money to bet The Senate Committee Seems Dis-Enright's Suburban room paid out $11,000; the White House owned by Enright & Co., lest over $8,000; Johnny Payne's loss was $2,400; Sharp & Co. paid out $4,000, while Mark Simonton paid $7,000. posed to Drop the Matter. Contrary to a public announcement, the Senate Committee appointed to investigate the recent coal combination did not meet at the Feecht coat combination did not meet the Hotel Metropole this morating.

Senator McMahon, Chairman of the Committee, when seen at his office on Park Row, said that there would be no further meeting until the Committee had conferred with the Legislative Committee of the Senate on the advisability of further probing the deal.

Broke the Window, but Took Nothing. Is a day of Rest, but the Eighteenth Precinct, heard a crash of glass in Otto Samor's jewley store, 129 Avenue A, and immediately after saw a man walk rapidly away. The officer arrested him. He gave his hame as John Siminous no home. The window of the lewelry store had been broken, but no property was missing. In the Yorkville Police Court this morning Justice Ryan held Siminous for Irial on the charge of burgiary.